Exhibitor Newsletter #1

4 July 2011

Three months to go until AusBiotech 2011!

We're looking forward to another successful event for exhibitors and delegates and provide you with the following information:

AusBiotech 2011 Exhibitor Manual

The exhibitor manual is now available for viewing here. It contains important information for exhibitors including details on how to register, furniture orders, move-in/move-out times, forwarding freight, and items requiring prior approval.

Conference Registration

Pre-registration for all registration types (including complimentary registrations and additional registration purchases) can be completed at your earliest convenience using the exhibitor online registration form. Please contact AusBiotech for your exhibitor promotional code when you are ready to register.

Delegate Handbook Advertising

The delegate handbook is known as the "who's who" of executives in biotechnology in Australia. Advertising in the delegate handbook is reasonably priced at:

Mono half-page	$690	Mono full-page	$1,130
Colour half-page	$1,130	Colour full-page	$2,010
Colour inside front cover	$2,230	Colour inside back cover	$2,230
Colour back cover	$3,330

Go to the Delegate Handbook Advertising Opportunities document for full details.

We thank you again for your support and look forward to a successful AusBiotech 2011. If you require assistance please contact:
