AUSBIOTECH 2011 CONFERENCE SPEAKERS' PROFILE

Geoff Bell Chief Executive Officer Microbiogen

Geoff holds a Bachelor of Science degree from the University of Sydney, plus a Bachelor of Economics degree and Master of Applied Finance degree from Macquarie University.

He has been a senior analyst at Prudential-Bache Securities, and a senior analyst and Head of Global Mining and Australian Research at BNP Paribas Equities.

He was also Head of Company Research for the Asia Pacific Region for BNP Paribas Equities. Through his career as an analyst he was top rated in his field for several years and won a number of industry awards.

Geoff was the leader of the successful Microbiogen capital raising efforts in 2006 and has subsequently been instrumental in transforming the company from a pure research group into an entity that has entered the commercial phase of its development.

He has extensive experience in developing unique research models, team building, financial analysis and investment advice. Geoff provides a strong financial focus and guidance to MBG.
