AUSBIOTECH 2011 CONFERENCE SPEAKERS' PROFILE

Kim O'Connell
Partner
Mallesons Stephen Jacques, Australia

Kim is a partner in the Sydney office of Mallesons Stephen Jaques where she specialises in intellectual property, regulatory and technology law, with particular emphasis on life sciences and medical devices.

Kim has been recognised as a leading patent litigation lawyer by Best Lawyers International (2008, 2009, 2010). She is also recommended in the area of IP litigation by PLC Which Lawyer (2008, 2009). In 2010, she was also listed as a recommended patent lawyer by Asia IP and in the area of Life Sciences by the Asia Pacific Legal 500.

In relation to pharmaceuticals, Kim has conducted a number of leading patent litigation cases. She is a commercially focussed, strategic litigator with a strong record of achieving client's goals.

Kim also acts for a range of biotech clients in commercialising IP and providing regulatory and compliance advice.
