AUSBIOTECH 2011 CONFERENCE SPEAKERS' PROFILE

Matthew Callahan
President and CEO
iCeutica Inc, Australia
Partner, Stone Ridge Ventures

Mr Callahan is an experienced entrepreneur and lawyer with approximately 16 years of legal and business experience in the US, Australia and Germany. Mr Callahan was the founding CEO of nano-pharmaceuticals company iCeutica Inc which was recently sold to US mid-tier pharmaceutical company Iroko for an undisclosed sale price, but which represented a 10 x uplift in value from the first capital raised in the company. Matt has led the business development, licensing and intellectual property development activities for the Company since its inception.

Mr Callahan is also a partner of Australian venture capital firm Stone Ridge Ventures investing in life sciences, industrials, resources technologies and other companies.

He is a former General Manager and general Counsel for listed technology commercialisation company ipernica Limited (ASX:IPR) and the former founding CEO of Dimerix Bioscience Pty Ltd and Glycan Biosciences Inc. Mr Callahan is currently a non-executive director of both Orthocell Pty Ltd, a venture capital backed cell therapies company, and Matteo Mining, an innovative mining equipment company which aims to change the economics of coal and iron ore mining.
